

No Hallowe'en Is Edict of Mathewson - To Halt the "Flu"

There'll be no Hallowe'en for the kiddies. Health Officer Mathewson last night decreed that the "flu" has called off all the Hallowe'en pranks, and small boys and small girls may not congregate on the street corners.

"It is very necessary that Halowe'en observance be entirely abandoned this year," announced Dr. Mathewson last night, "we do not want anything done that may cause the further spread of germs. I urge all parents to keep their children at home. The police have been instructed to send any children home who are found on the streets."
