NAKANISHI HURLS TWO HIT BALL

OTED NAKANISHI, ace right hander, limited the Perkins to but 2 scattered hits in the AA championship tilt.

While the Logger hurler was pitching an air-tight game, the Newsmen touched Bill Matsuo for 8 solid hits to clinch the double-eye title by a 10-1 score.

Loggers went on a scoring attack in the initial time at bat when a triple by George

ALL STARS

Mythical all-star teams for the boys' and girls' leagues are in the SPORTS section.

Iwanski and a double by Kyoto Mikami featured in the four-run rally.

Californians found the home plate only once in the game when Ted Kobata scored after an outfield fly.

Loggers went on to tally 6 more in the 4th and 5th innings to coast the rest of the way.

Kyoto Mikami starred at the plate with 2 singles and a double in 3 trips.

CENTER BUSY WITH MOVING ACTIVITIES

WITH the date of the initial departure for the relocation areas set for Wednesday, Center residents this week were busy preparing for the trip to their new homes for the duration.

DEDICATION

TO Fred P. Hauck, Center manager, and George H. King, service director, this last issue of the LOGGER is respectfully dedicated.

Without their kind encouragement and invaluable assistance the publication of the LOGGER would never have been possible.

Administrative officials and their staffs were working frantically to make the daily removal of 500 evacuees as smooth and efficient as possible.

Two monitors for each 45 persons, under the direction of a supervisor, will tend to the needs of the evacuees on each trip. The monitors are also entrusted with proper dissemination of information and distribution of bulletins and tags. Heads of families may contact the monitors at any time for further information.

2,166 AT TULE

TULE LAKE--With the latest arrivals from Salinas, Montana and Idaho entering the Tule Lake Relocation Center over the fourth weekend, the total population was boosted to a new high of 2,166 residents the TULEAN DISPATCH reported this week.

BABY CARE PROVIDED

BECAUSE of limited Pullman transportation, only those actually in need of it will be listed. In order to determine this, monitors will elicit the following information on occasion of their first visit to each family:

1. Red-ridden. If so, why?
2. Infants under the age of two years.
3. Infants wearing diapers.
4. Expectant mothers whose pregnancy has passed seven months.
5. Expectant mothers whose pregnancy is less than seven months, but who have complications.
6. Babies on formula feeding.
7. Persons who may be lame or crippled.

EDITORIAL

Two months ago the first contingent of evacuees from the Northwest were inducted into Pinedale. All were, more or less, bewildered and slightly apprehensive of the new mode of life into which they were entering. The hot and flat California countryside was strange to them; they missed the green hills and valleys of their native Northwest. They had just emerged from the strain of the hectic months following that unforgettable morning of December 7, 1941.

Swiftly the Center expanded and the people readily acclimated themselves to their new environment. Together with the encouragement from the Center administration and cooperation from all the residents of the Center, there grew up a friendly community of 4,300 complete with recreational, social and political activities.

Looking back over the past two months, we are proud of the way in which the evacuees conducted their daily living. Morale here has been exceptionally high. The administration has praised the people for their excellent cooperation. Perfect understanding exists between the evacuees and the Center administration.

One important thing has been accomplished here at the Center. Two months of living in close proximity with one and another has taught the evacuees the vital need for cooperation. It has long been noted that the Japanese, as a general rule, have been lacking in social consciousness. Pinedale has contributed a valuable training period in cooperative enterprise, which will be of extreme usefulness in our life in the relocation centers.

This cooperative spirit is of utmost importance to reap the fullest social benefits possible in the relocation centers and in the post-war period as well.

As we move on to new horizons, let us take with us the fine spirit displayed here at Pinedale. Let us work for the preservation and furtherance of the highest principles of democratic life.

MOVING time is here and it means lights out for the LOGGER. Yes, after serving the community for some 33 days our job is done—officially become extinct with this farewell issue. We hate to sing the usual swan song about how tough it is to say adios and all that sort of rot—but some of it is inevitable. We had our share of fun and also our share of disappointments. But all of that falls under the classification of a great new experience and our life is that much the richer for it. So we break up with much regret but at the same time we are looking forward keenly to our new home. To Californians departing for Arizona, "We wish we could have had more time to get better acquainted and also are reluctant on being separated from them," and to the Northwesters we'll see you all at Tule Lake. Happy landings, everybody.

THE CENTER TALKS

© THIS issue of the LIVING is the final act of our two months' campaigns at "Lindale." But you have, as we know, not been successful, thanks largely to the commitment and the invaluable assistance of our service head, George E. King. Without his aid, the LIVING would never have been possible.

As with at this time, to thank the Center residents for the all-out support which they extended the LIVING. Their interest stimulated for the improvement of the paper since its first inception.

To the Tacoma JACL and the Tacoma Methodist church, we are deeply indebted for the use of their micrograph facilities.

Our thanks go also to our capable art staff for making the LIVING one of the more attractive center news sheets. The staff is also to be commended for working long hours to serve the journalistic needs of the community.

FAREWELL
ALL-STAR

© THIS a big star reading "Farewell Finedale" over the B playbill stage, this Center presented it's last amateur show Saturday night. Roughly 4,000 people cheered the efforts of the performers which included all-stars of previous shows in addition to new talent.

Highlighting the three hour revue were such stars as Miyo Ichiki, a graceful and lovely dancer from Sacramento way; song stylists Martha Fukami and Yoshie Doi; talented Koiko Ogawa and Reiko Tomasaka, tiny Tacoma tap dance experts; baton twirling Kay Sumai, and master of ceremonies-par-excellence-Ray "Cheppie" Yasui.

Other outstanding hits included Finedale's first "official" wedding, performed by tiny tots of the kindergarten group; the wild jumble dance, and the odori by the old men's group.

Emphasizing the finality of these shows were the presentation of a gift to Center manager, Fred P. Hauck by Ted Nakamura, council chairman; announcements concerning the removal of permanent centers by George E. King, supervisor of the Service Division, and presentation of the recreation boards by Carl Bongston, supervisor of Recreation.

To the Arizona-bound Californians, we wish to convey our best wishes for a happy existence in their new home. It's been nice knowing you and we hope that we may see each other again after the duration.

GRANGE TROUBLE

THE latest fad around the Center seems to be that of pushing an orange on the ground with the aid of one's olfactory organ (nose to you).

Membership in the Grange Fishers club is strictly limited to those unfortunate souls who were deluded into betting on the wrong team in the softball championship tournament. Most of the Grange Fishers persisted in betting against the LUGGERS, which was, they will agree, a very foolish thing to do.

Honorary members in the Exalted Order of Grange Fishers are: Suma Tsuboi, Roy Nakagishi, Muri Ichukota, Ken Harashi and Roy Takai.

'Taint nothing like it for the figure, the girls say.

DISCOVERED---one pine tree, actually in Finedale! The dubious may see the phenomenon themselves in front of the Suda residence, Barrack 20.

Of course it may be necessary to get on hands and knees to see the rarity. But the tree, nevertheless, is there.

NIPPON BOOKS
BEING TAGGED

ALL Japanese printed literature, with the exception of religious manuals, which was turned in, in compliance with Went. General DeWitt's order, are now being tagged according to identification and family numbers, so that with relocation order, the books may be returned with the least possible delay.

WORKERS PRAISED BY DOC ROBERTS

ON view of the fact that our Center is about to close, I wish to take this opportunity on behalf of my staff and myself to extend our thanks and appreciation to the personnel of the Carpenters, Painters, Plumbers, Road Gang, Electricians, and the Grounds and Sanitation Departments. It has been our privilege and pleasure to know you, to work and participate with you in many of your activities.

I wish to extend a special thanks to the Grounds and Sanitation Department. Your job has not been a pleasant one and I realize that you have done this unpleasant work in a fine spirit of community service. The community in turn owes to you a debt of gratitude for your unselfish services. I would like to thank each and everyone of you personally, but this being impossible, I am taking this method of conveying my thoughts to you as you go forth to your new location.

It is our hope and wish that you will find a full measure of happiness and I am sure America will keep faith with you.

Also at this time on behalf of Firechief Middleton, his assistants, and myself wish to extend our sincere thanks and appreciation to our fireman for their tireless and unselfish service to the community. Night and day they have protected life and property from the hazards of fire. Let's give the boys a big vote of thanks.

Signed,
Daniel C. Roberts
Works Director

MED STAFF COMMENT

DR. H. O'Konai, medical officer in charge of the Finadale hospital staff, will leave for the Morced Assembly Center, upon completion of his work here. The doctor stated that he wished he could take the entire hospital staff with him.

"They have been very efficient, cheerful and loyal in their work," Dr. O'Konai said.

Up to July 9, 144 different illnesses of all kinds were treated at the hospital. Included were 6 communicable diseases—1 measles, 31 chicken pox, 18 mumps, and 2 cases of whooping cough.

Dr. H. Konai, who will go to the Fresno Assembly center, was in charge of the immunizations. Under his direction, 2,332 typhoid shots were recorded, 4,478 smallpox vaccinations, 545 diphtheria Schick tests, 308 toxoid injections, 329 Wasserman tests, and 7 whooping cough vaccines. All mess workers, given a health exam during the past week, will receive certificates which will be valuable to them in the next center should they apply for similar work.

Despite many severe handicaps, 1,055 dental patients were treated by the dental department.

Other statistics in the Center's medical history show that 13,166 male were fed 16 babies and 1,281 prescriptions were issued and three births took place at Hospital C.

ELECTRICIANS CELEBRATE

OVER 80 persons were in attendance at the Saturday night farewell party of the Electricians and Painters. The affair began with a banquet held at A 2 with Henry Tsubota, toastmaster. Representative speakers at the dinner were Bob Nakao of the Electricians, Tom Nishimura, Painters and Charles Igaruski of the Road Gang. Frank Sunahara spoke in behalf of the California people who were connected with the two departments.

There were gardenia bouquets for all feminine members present and white gladioli decorated the walls.

Honor guests for the evening were Suma Tauboi, Esther Sato and Connie Kubo. Patron of the event was James Walker. Committeemen included Shig Itani, Sakai Okazaki, Ed Inaki, Bill Okazaki and George Onori. Singing accompanied the banquet and dancing topped the evening at the Visitor's hall from 10 to 11 p.m.

COUNCILMEN THANKS STAFF

ON behalf of the Center residents, the Central Committee wishes to express its appreciation to Fred P. Hauck, Center manager, and his entire administrative staff.

We shall never forget the kind and considerate treatment accorded us by the Center officials.

Signed,
Ted Nakamura
Chairman.

POLICE CHIEF JOHNS LAUDS EVACUEE CONDUCT

IN a statement to the LOGGER, Chief Al G. Johns of the Interior Police conveyed his last message to the Center residents.

In comment of the behavior of the evacuees, Johns said. "Considering the population of this Center, the infringement of the rules and regulations has been unusually small, and in most cases of minor matters. Their conduct is worthy of high praise. The Interior Police greatly appreciated the cooperation and spirit contributed by the evacuees in abiding by the rules set by the government. I am speaking mostly on behalf of the men on the police force, who came in personal contact with the residents here."

Johns expressed the hope that the evacuees here would remain in the area and go to school.

CRUSADERS FACE BUSSEIS

TACOMANS are slated to clash in diamond grudge game tomorrow evening when Busseis and Crusaders will take over the East field from 7 o'clock.

Although out of the title race of the AA box, the two Tacoma teams will battle for the Key of Destiny title.

In the hill for the Crusaders will be Hughie Seto, left wall artist, while Busseis will rely on Slavom Yamada's right arm.

In the double-eye campaign, Crusaders and Busseis were rick up in the standings, finishing the regular season tied for first spot. Crusaders dropped their only game to Perkins, while Busseis were surprised by the White River bunch.

Both Tacoma teams were eliminated in the fight for the AA crown in the opening round.

Crusaders draw Loggers in the first game and lost to the Westmen by a 11-6 count. Busseis found themselves in the wrong end of a 9-7 score in the California game.

Na Yamane and Nagai are coaches of Crusaders and Busseis, respectively.

CHANGE MEET TO TUESDAY

FAREWELL Sumo Tournament will be held tonight from 7 o'clock at the sand pits in Block A, according to Frank Watanabe, chairman.

Although scheduled on Monday, the meet was changed to Tuesday to avoid a conflict with the softball games.

Sumo and all its trimmings will be offered at the final journey to be held here in Pinedale.

In the fourth of July competition, Californians walked off the pit with a majority of awards. Ken Matsuo, George Yamada and Paul Kuwabara took the hand-carved trophies made by Masami Sado.

IN what was a surprising upset, the Tacoma Truckers outbatted and outplayed the favored Sacramento Solons to the delightful tune of 10-2 in the title game. For the first four innings it was a tight pitching duel between Ed Hayashi and Roy Namba. Two bases on balls and a single by Yamada netted two runs for the Tacomans.

In their turn at bat in the second inning the Solons scored two runs when singles by Hashimoto and Takehara was followed by a two base hit by Hironaka.

Then came the fourth inning which meant defeat to the Solons. A circuit blow by Hayashi; two baggers by Yamada and K. Namba; singles by Kawano, Kimura, and Canada gave the Tacomans six runs.

The winners added two more runs to their score in the 6th canto.

Art Yamada and Eiyoshi Nakao paced the Tacomans at bat with a single and a two bagger apiece, while Hiro Sasano led the Solons with 2 bingles.

S. Narai and G. Miyazaki are Trucker coach and mgr.

SPORTS LOG

Q NOW THAT it can be told, here's one reason why Loggers went through the AA season to capture the championship. It seems that a certain editor of the one and only newspaper here in Pinedale smelled the possibilities of a group of White River youngsters in taking the double-eye crown and tasked them to carry the name Pinedale Loggers after the weekly newspaper of the same name.

The AA season started in a row. Perkins finally caught White River and Invaders in a row. Perkins finally caught the Newsmen looking the wrong way and administered their their initial loss. Incidentally, Oldtimers and White River are the big brothers of the Loggers.

Then came the movement orders and the elimination schedule. Tacoma Crusaders fell before the hard-hitting Loggers 11-6 in the opening round, while Auburn AF was next with a 8-4 score. In the championship tilt last night, Loggers walloped Perkins, 10-1.

3 BATTERS TIED FOR BAT HONOR

TOBY KATO, Shiro Tomma and Hiroshi Ito finished the season tied for first place in the AA batting race.

The three sluggers hit 9 times out of 18 trips to the plate for a .600 average.

Name	Team	AB	H	Avg.

I. Sakagami	Aub	10	5	.500
P. Matsuo	Perk	8	4	.500

He challenged any one to bet against the Loggers and the loser of the bet was to roll an object with his nose. On the Crusader-Logger tilt he won "by a nose", while in the Auburn game his luck stuck with him and his organ of smell came out unskinned. In the championship game his "nose for news" found a member of the sports department willing to enter the contest. The Loggers won again.

Toby Editor Watanabe has no duster on the tip of his nose. He has come out of the many battles unscarred by calling them "on the nose". The victims, namely Sumu Tsuboi, associate editor, and Roy Takai, assistant sports editor, are to appear in fruit of the cap-teen and roll an orange with their noses to pay off for their wrong guesses.

GEORGE KUROSE HITS .818 CLIP

GEORGE KUROSE, Lincoln first sacker, finished the regular season with a .818 batting average in the Aye class.

Iryo Yamasaki of Solons holds down the second spot with .800 average, while Bill Sato of Hood River is in the third place tied with Kato of Seattle. They are batting .667 in the 3 game average.

JR. ALL-STAR DOWN SENIORS

IN AN exhibition game between the All-Stars of the senior and junior leagues, the latter won the tilt by a 9-8 score on Monday evening.

Golden Bears summited in the second frame to score four times when singles by Virginia Furumoto, Etsuno and Namba were followed by a single hit blow of Nambawa.

Another fourm attack in the third sent the hood-southern Californians ahead the game up. Successive base hits by Nancy Matsui, Furumoto, Etsuno and Namba drove over all the runs.

Nancy Matsui, one of the senior leaders, led the Van-shon outfit to 4 scattered hits and struck out 7.

Namba, Del Shorta star, led the victors of the date with a perfect performance collecting 3 strikes.
