FRESNO CITY STREET MAP

POINTS OF INTEREST IN AND NEAR FRESNO

FRESNO, in the exact geographical center of California, is one of the most conveniently located convention cities of the State and the key city for tourists to see three National Parks, the Kings River Canyon wonderland and numerous mountain-lake resorts. Fresno has 91,515 population in its city limits of 8 square miles and 85,000 in its metropolitan area of 23 square miles. Paved and oiled roads radiate from Fresno in every direction. The city is served by the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe railroads, and the Pacific Greyhound Lines. Airplanes for mail and passengers maintain daily service north and south from Chandler Municipal Airport. As the metropolis of one of the most productive agricultural regions of America, with a practical monopoly of raisins, grapes and figs, Fresno's industries depend mainly on fruit, with petroleum, lumber and cotton as other important products. Fresno County has 700,000 acres of farm and fruit land under irrigation. Fresno is a city of attractive homes and gardens. The Fresno State College with an enrollment exceeding 2,000 is California's sixth largest educational institution. There are now four high schools and twenty-one elementary schools. Fresno has 25 hotels, six libraries, several auditoriums, 52 churches, three golf-country clubs and splendid parks and playgrounds. Points of interest are: Roeding Park, 157 acres, with 800 varieties of trees and shrubs; Kearney boulevard, nine miles of palms; Kearney Park; Fresno State College; Fresno High School and Roosevelt Junior High Schools; the Sun-Maid Raisin Plant, largest dried fruit packing plant in the world. Distances from Fresno of County and Valley attractions are: Grant Park, 24 miles; Huntington Lake, 72 miles; Shaver Lake, 61 miles; Sequoia Park, 90 miles; Yosemite, 95 miles; Kings River Canyon, 72 miles; Rose Lake, 50 miles; Kettleman Hills, known as the world's richest oil field, 60 miles.
